June 23, 1983

To His Excellency
Richard A. Snelling
Governor of Vermont

Dear Governor Snelling:

I am pleased to present the Annual Report for the Insurance Division of the Department of Banking and Insurance for the year ended June 30, 1982 as required by Title 8, V.S.A. § 73.

Addressing the continuing concern with escalating health care costs has occupied a significant portion of this Department's time. Insurance companies are increasingly playing an important role in reshaping the health care system. As the regulator of these companies, we can be a positive influence for cost containment but this effort will complicate the regulatory process by testing the strength of competing priorities. At the same time we are encouraging the introduction of competitive elements into the health care system we are also mindful of the need to ensure the solvency and continued viability of the insurance mechanism. These competing goals are a new challenge for insurance regulators nationally.

On a broader front, we are beginning to witness events that are putting property and casualty insurers to a severe financial test. The past few years has seen very vigorous competition for investable funds frequently based upon unrealistic product pricing cuts. The industry has relied upon income from investments to make up the shortfall in its traditional underwriting operations; however, opportunity in the investment area has diminished recently and the adverse effects of such product underpricing are being felt on a fairly broad scale. This situation reoccurs on a cyclical basis but the potential financial squeeze of the next few years could be greater than the last downturn in the mid-seventies. We continue our nightwatch for insurer financial problems.

Vermont itself continues as a solid insurance market without the many problems that seem to plague our nearby sister states. Rate levels remain adequate but not excessive as competition exerts an appreciable influence here. Our stable economic, social and legal environment works to the benefit of all Vermonters affected by the insurance industry.

There are 653 insurance companies doing business in Vermont of which 22 are companies domiciled in this state. Total premiums written amount to nearly $400 million. In addition, surplus lines or non-admitted business of $3.5 million was recorded as written. Total premium taxes of $6,964,467 were collected and paid to the General Fund on this business.

Prepaid health service plans received $63.2 million of subscriber income and no taxes are paid on this. Blue Cross/Blue Shield is the largest of these service plans with $62.5 million of premium income.

Servicing all this business for Vermonters were 7250 licensed agents, brokers, adjusters, appraisers and consultants. During the year ending June 30, 1982, 1,002 examinations were given covering these licensing categories and the applicants achieved a 67% pass ratio. Revenues from Insurance Division operations amounted to $825,096.

The Consumer Services Section responded to numerous inquiries from the public and formally processed 715 complaints of which 374 were resolved favorably for the complainant. Actions against licensed individuals and companies resulted in fines or administrative penalties of $2,600.

The Insurance Division continues to pursue more effective and economical ways to accomplish our responsibilities. With insurance activities expanding and becoming more complex on all fronts, these tasks are viewed as challenges which we are responding to with resolve and dedication.

Respectfully submitted,

George A. Chaffee
Commissioner
